We are the 1st Exclusive Business Community™ taking our unique line of market altering oral care products to market exclusively with you through Active Distribution™.

- Active Distribution™ means that, as our exclusive distribution partners, you will actively distribute our amazing products to the world.
 - We are your partner in ongoing product education, supporting science, and introducing market changing new products with marketing support.
 - Building a thriving active distribution™ community offering amazing new dental care products is our one and only goal!

As a Company, We WILL NOT Compete With You!

- We have gone direct to retail in the past with our products utilizing the biggest distribution channels to include: Kroger, Walmart, CVS, Target and Rite Aid.
- We have also worked with 1,000s of dental professionals in the past.
- We are no longer using these distribution channels and WILL NOT in the future.

Why Oral Care?

- Oral Care is one of the largest revenue generating aisles in retail!
- There is a reason why some of the largest companies in the world are involved in oral care.
